PRIVATE BANKING RELATIONSHIP PROGRAM

When you need assistance with more than just basic account transactions.

Northwest Federal Credit Union is committed to providing convenient access to financial advice and solutions that meet your unique financial needs. As part of this commitment, we'd like to invite you to participate in our exclusive Private Banking Relationship Program. This program is designed to offer concierge level service in personal financial care to only a select group of Northwest Federal members.

Meet Christopher (Chris) Greenhill, Jr.

For more than 15 years, Chris has been helping established members like you manage their personal financial portfolios. Chris is dedicated to understanding your whole financial relationship. He is supported by a trusted team who partners with him to ensure you reach your short-term and long-term financial goals. They'll work closely with you to monitor and guide you with:

- Trust and Estate Administration
- Investment Management
- Wealth Strategy
- Fixed Income Management

Chris uses his insight to proactively connect with you to provide personalized recommendations specific to your needs. He will be your personal point of contact to help guide, grow and preserve your wealth.
